Job title: Business Teacher

(Online & face to face)

Business Teacher (+/- 8 teaching hours per week)

Whether you are an experienced teacher or a teacher looking to make their first steps into the profession, we are looking for dedicated, enthusiastic and reliable people to join our teaching team. Is your English (written and spoken) of a sufficient level to teach students in an international setting? Are you a team player who is looking for an opportunity to further their career?

The aim of our students is to reach VWO level 6 in one academic year, and then to progress to the University of Twente. The majority of our students speak English to an Upper Intermediate level, are from outside of the EU, and are aged between 17 and 19.

Daily activities

Approximately half your working week will consist of teaching classes of 20 to 25 international students. The preparation of your lessons can sometimes be done individually and sometimes as part of a team. As part of the teaching team, you will create, invigilate, and grade credit-bearing examinations. Grading student examination papers is a key feature of this role. You will be required to liaise with your colleagues about the content of your lessons, and the College's management team about the students' progress.

You will also have the opportunity to create new teaching materials for yourself. You will also be involved in formal and semi-formal observations of lessons, gaining useful feedback to ensure the quality of your teaching remains as high as possible. You will be in regular contact with your colleagues about the content of the lessons and the students' progress.

Given the international context, you will be expected to cater for cultural differences in the group and occasionally participate in activities inside and outside the lessons to help the students integrate.

You are:

A key requirement for this position is that you have extensive knowledge of Business Administration, specifically in the fields of Management & Organization and Economics. Next to that you are able to transfer this knowledge on first-year university level. You enjoy speaking, presenting and teaching in front of a group. It is a requirement that your English in speech and writing is at a sufficient level. You are comfortable speaking in English in front of large audiences, both online and face to face.

We offer:

- A dynamic, fast-paced, international setting
- Opportunity for independent growth and professional development
- A fully on-campus teaching experience
- Competitive salary

We ask:

- A C1 level of English (spoken and written)
- Minimum qualifications in a relevant subject (e.g., Bachelor and/or Masters)
- Experience in teaching is an advantage but not necessarily a prerequisite
- A reliable, enthusiastic, and dedicated professional
- Ability to commute to Enschede

About Twente Pathway College & Navitas:

Located right on the University of Twente campus, Twente Pathway College (TPC) offers academic pathways in partnership with the University of Twente, which lead to globally recognized undergraduate degrees.

Navitas is a leading global education provider that has helped generations of learners transform their lives through education. We create life-changing opportunities to learn by delivering an extensive range of educational services to over 70,000 aspirational students across our global network each year.

Next steps:

Are you interested in applying for this position? Please send your letter of motivation and CV to Kim Bruil (Director of Academic & Student Services) before 16 July 2021: kim.bruil@navitas.com

Please note: The potential start date for this position is August 2021, although this is relatively flexible.